C*INDIVIDUAL INSURANCE

Although full club membership automatically includes public liability insurance, it only covers you when your are flying at club organised or approved events or an event the club has been invited. It does not automatically cover you for times you are flying on your own or with friends and family without the club knowledge. We have however managed to get a secondary policy for fully paid up members which will cover both individual / family members for public liability insurance which can be added

Extra individual insurance (available with any full membership)
